#1: Reasonable Cause Explanation

ExplanationTxt:

In our first year of filing, our organization submitted Form 990-N because we did not meet the income or net asset requirements for Form 990. We were not anticipating a significant increase in our income, particularly due to In-kind donations, in the second year. Unfortunately, we realized quite late that we needed to file Form 990 and lacked the expertise to do so. Initially, we intended to seek professional assistance, but the high cost was beyond our organization's financial means at that time. Consequently, we made the decision to navigate the complexities of Form 990 on our own, which resulted in a delay in filing. Furthermore, our work commitments posed additional challenges and contributed to the filing delay. Moving forward, we have learned from this experience and are committed to improving our filing process for the next year. We plan to allocate funds to enlist the help of an expert in order to ensure a smoother and timely filing.
